CEDAR COMMONS EARLY LEARNING CENTER

Programs focus on supporting the entire family. From creating a nurturing classroom community & curriculum designed to meet the developmental needs of every child to parent education & wraparound care, we meet you where you are at. Cedar Commons ELC provides a safe, loving environment where your child will be at the center of everything we do. Hands-on sensory experiences, partnering with parents, play-based art, science activities, and more! ECEAP, Working Connections, and tuition based slots are available.

BLAINE CAP - CRISIS ASSISTANCE

Serving Blaine, Birch Bay, Custer, & Point Roberts

CAP Crisis Assistance is designed to help bridge the gap in emergency situations requiring immediate financial intervention. Assistance is available once a year per family and can be given in the following areas: utility payments, prescriptions, transportation, and groceries. Assistance is provided in the form of vouchers; no cash will be given.

To request assistance: call 360-392-8484 and leave a message stating the nature of your request and your contact information. A Crisis Assistance volunteer will contact you. If we are not able to assist, we will provide referrals to other agencies that may be able to help.
