HOUSING WEEK

The 4th annual Whatcom Housing Week is here! With the global COVID-19 pandemic and increasing unrest over racial injustice in America, having a safe, equitable, and affordable home is more important than ever. Housing Week 2020 will be a mix of virtual events and socially-distanced activities from 10/12-16 for housing enthusiasts and the broader community alike. Register here.

Join Housing Week for a series of events that build awareness and support for innovative housing solutions to create safe, equitable, and affordable homes for everyone. Events include a keynote presentation from distinguished historian and author Richard Rothstein; a neighborhood scavenger hunt; conversations on activating historically underrepresented voices, breaking out of the housing trap, creating a vibrant community through a variety of mobility options, and more.

PRESENTED BY WHATCOM HOUSING ALLIANCE

Whatcom Housing Alliance is a broad alliance of organizations including: public health proponents, economic development agencies, for-profit and non-profit housing developers, smart growth enthusiasts, private business owners, investors and others all united to build an affordable, healthy, equitable, thriving, and inclusive community.
